INTRODUCTION

Tillinghurst Farm was once a thriving equestrian and agricultural unit, bordering the South of England Show Ground. Hidden down a private sweeping driveway yet located in an entirely accessible location, Tillinghurst Farm offers good opportunities for incoming purchasers to make use of the extensive equestrian potential or expand the current grass farming enterprise. Approached via a private accessway, the farmhouse, formerly two cottages, needs some modernisation throughout to bring it back to its full potential, making use of its location and situation.

LOCATION

Ardingly is a charming and tranquil village located in Sussex, nestled in the heart of the High Weald Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Surrounded by rolling countryside, woodlands, and traditional farmland, Ardingly offers a quintessentially English rural atmosphere. The village is best known for two key landmarks, Ardingly College, a prestigious independent boarding and day school, and Ardingly Reservoir, which is a popular spot for outdoor activities, and is also a nature reserve, attracting birdwatchers and wildlife enthusiasts. Ardingly is also home to the South of England Showground, which hosts major agricultural and countryside events throughout the year, including the well-known South of England Show. Despite its peaceful setting, Ardingly is well-connected, with nearby towns like Haywards Heath providing rail links to London, making it attractive to commuters who want a countryside lifestyle.

DIRECTIONS

From the Waitrose in Haywards Heath, head south on the Mill Green Road before turning right onto College Road, continue until reaching the roundabout. Take the first exit onto Portsmouth Lane and continue north on High Beech Lane. After a mile, join College Road and continue until reaching a junction with the Ardingly Inn to your left, turn left onto the B2028, follow for a mile, past the show ground before turning left onto Tillinghurst Lane. Follow the lane all the way down and you will reach Tillinghurst Farm.
