LOCATION

Sandwich is a medieval town in south-east England, being one of the Cinque Ports. It remains a popular, thriving and prosperous town, with access to a wide range of shops, schools, cultural and sporting attractions nearby, including Royal St George's, Princes and Royal Cinque Ports golf courses.

The town is located in the Dover District and connects to Canterbury, around 13 miles west, via the A257 and to Dover, around 13 miles south via the A256, both of which connect with the M2 Motorway. The local station also offers High Speed rail connections to central London.

The property is situated on Crystal Business Centre on Sandwich Industrial Estate, in an established commercial location close to both Discovery Park and Sandwich Town Centre.

DESCRIPTION

The unit comprises a single storey industrial unit of steel frame construction with corrugated steel sheet cladding. The property has a power floated concrete floor, full height loading door and a ground floor office and staff area. The unit is well presented throughout and benefits from the following:

- 5.3m eaves
- Full height loading door
- Forecourt loading/parking area
- LED lighting
