LOCATION

The historic cathedral city of Canterbury is around 60 miles southeast of London, 28 miles east of Maidstone and 18 miles north-west of Dover. It has excellent connections with the A2 and A28 linking with the M2 and M20 motorways respectively, and two stations offering regular services to central London with journey times to London St Pancras of approximately 51 minutes.

The property is situated on the north side of King Street, close to its junction with Palace Street in the heart of the city centre, close to many shops and restaurants, the Beany Museum and the Marlowe Theatre.

DESCRIPTION

Chantry Yard is a unique period building having brick and timber weatherboard elevations within an attractive private courtyard. The building has been imaginatively converted to create high quality contemporary offices arranged over two floors, having the following features:
