LOCATION

Canterbury is around 60 miles southeast of London, having excellent road connections with the A2 and A28 linking with the M2 and M20 several respectively. It has two stations offering regular rail services, including High Speed connections to London St Pancras (55 mins).

The city has a catchment population of approximately 144,000 and is one of Kent's premier retail centres with a comprehensive mix of national retailers and restaurants. It is a popular tourist destination and an important educational hub in Kent, with four universities having a combined student population of over 46,000.

The property occupies a prominent location on the corner of St Margaret's Street and Hawks Lane in the heart of Canterbury's main professional business district, popular with Solicitors, Accountants, Surveyors and Architects. The city's main shopping area, Canterbury East Railway Station and Canterbury Bus Station are all within a short walking distance.
